

RAILROAD SHORTS: Skiers are crowding Burlington railroad week-end trains to Chestnut Hills, near Galena, Ill. Special fares, good any week-end in February or March, are 45 per cent less than the regular round trip fare. Chestnut Hills has the only chairlift in Illinois and a slope with a 425 foot vertical drop . . . Longer ranging skiers are being offered a St. Patrick's day [March 17] week-end tour via Burlington to Colorado's Hidden Valley. Information on all Burlington package tours is available at Burlington Travel Headquarters, 105 W. Adams. . . . The Chesapeake and Ohio railway is the first eastern railroad to offer a "go now, pay later" travel plan.
