

Bloomfield Hills Club Boasts New Ski Tow

BY IRENE NEUMANN

SUN VALLEY or Vanderbilt have nothing on Bloomfield Hills when it comes to skiing, for the Bloomfield Hills Country Club now boasts a ski tow for its members. We hear it was brought down from Vanderbilt by some of the Bloomfield members, who thought there was really no sense in leaving it idle all winter where it was getting no use.

There was a large group out this week-end at the Club, many of whom stayed for luncheon to continue their trips across the snow, which is the best we've had for skiing in the last five years in this locality.

Noted among the skiers were Mr. and Mrs. Alvan Macauley (Mrs. Macauley, you remember, skied in the Tyrol a few years back), Mr. and Mrs. C. Thorne Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Parker and Peggy Flynn, all of whom were over from Grosse Pointe.

Others were Mr. and Mrs. West I. Gallogly, Mrs. Henry Reichhold and her daughter, Ingrid (Mrs. Reichhold hasn't missed a winter at Sun Valley since it opened until this season), Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Mann, Mr. and Mrs. Damon Gall, Donald McLouth (who is one of the charter members of the Vanderbilt Club), young Steven and David Booth, Freddie and Randall Booth, and many others.

Mrs. Louis S. Morse, Jr., is leaving, Jan. 23, for New York, where she will visit her husband, Lieut. Morse, who is stationed there.

* * *

Having a sandwich luncheon and knitting for the Red Cross afterwards on Wednesday, at the home of Mrs. James Sidway, on Wing Lake, were Mrs. Edward Proctor, Mrs. John Z. Lander, Mrs. Christopher E. Holzworth, Mrs. John B. Poole, Mrs. Jones Shannon, Mrs. William W. Williams and Mrs. Kenneth McGregor.

* * *

Mrs. Williason LaVake Clover and her small son, Billy, left last week-end for their home in Nashville.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur H. Otis are back home again after a few weeks' stay with their son and daughter-in-law, Lieut. and Mrs. George Otis, in Richmond, Va.

* * *

Guests of Mrs. Donald D. Janes at luncheon, in her home last Thursday, were Mrs. Jervis B. Webb, Mrs. Frederick Weed, Mrs. Percy K. Loud, Mrs. William B. Rosevear, Jr., Mrs. A. S. Trew, Mrs. William M. Purves, Mrs. W. D. Thompson, Mrs. George B. Storer, Mrs. Roswell G. Curtis, Mrs. Carroll M. Boutell, Mrs. George W. J. Linton, Mrs. West I. Gallogly and Mrs. George Coleman Booth.

Clipped By:

mhealyski

Thu, Oct 6, 2022