

Something new in winter sports, introduced here this winter, is toboggan jumping from the two jumps at Elberta Mountain. Several toboggan enthusiasts of this region who have been making jumps on toboggans will participate in an exhibition Sunday afternoon. Up to now jumps of 50 and 60 feet have been made, but some of those now practicing for Sunday's exhibition hope to jump 70 or 80 feet.