

6 MINNEAPOLIS SUNDAY TRIBUNE W Jan. 6, 1952

SCENE

In Edina

Alley-Oop: It's almost a neighborhood gathering at the recently opened Edina ski tow on highway 169. The majority of sportsmen swooping over the hills are from nearby Minneapolis suburbs. Skier with the shortest distance to travel is Raymond Chermak, 9 (above), who just walks across the road for his skiing.

It's All in the Game: Rosemary Blazek, 3419 Nicollet avenue, gets a lift from Alan Tronsgard, 3553 Forty-fifth avenue S., after a spill in the snow.

Helpful Husband: Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Johnson, 4107 Meadowbrook lane, St. Louis Park, ski together at the Edina location, which is being run by Richard Hromadko, Hopkins. Hromadko began skiing on the same hills as a boy.

Rest: Mrs. M. W. Farmer, 3341 Zenwood avenue, St. Louis Park, takes time out after a run downhill at the Edina ski tow.
