

---

Snow sports will still hold sway in several sections this weekend. There will be skiing at Silver Slope, Lanesboro and at Pigeon Falls. Coasting will be general in many of the communities. Here safety must be stressed. We have had one coasting fatality in the area already this winter and several children have been injured.

---