

RLF Sno-Fest Opens Saturday

RED LAKE FALLS, MINN.— Winter sports will dominate annual Sno-Fest activities, which open here Saturday. A prelude to the weekend entertainment will be an 8 p.m. hockey game Friday pitting Red Lake Falls' Lafayette High School against Crookston Central.

Saturday's program includes skating races for grade and high school students beginning at 1 p.m., snowmobile races at the Oak Knolls Golf Course at 3 p.m., and a dinner at the American Legion Club at 5 p.m.

Lafayette High School skaters will face Crookston Cathedral at another 8 p.m. game Saturday. The game will also see the coronation of the Sno-Fest Queen. The Sno-Fest dance will begin at 10 p.m.

Skiing events will begin at 1:30 p.m. Sunday at the Timberlane Ski area three miles northwest of here. At 7 p.m. The Lafayette High School band will perform at the Riverside Arena, where the local American Legion will hold a bleacher dedication. The Roseau Skating Club, which is directed by Nancy Burggraf, will top off the evening with its show — Rhapsody On Ice.
