Ski Conditions Reported Good

Conditions for ski enthusiasts at hills in the area were reported good for the weekend.

Here are reports from three ski resorts:

Comet Skiways—20 miles east of Detroit Lakes on Highway 34. Two tows, 800 feet and 650 feet.

Chalet with ski shop and lunch counter. Good artificial lighting on one slope for evening parties.

Three to four inches of new snow with eight to nine inches of base snow. Open weekends. Skiing excellent.

Hallaway—25 miles northeast of Fergus Falls, five miles east of Pelican Rapids, on Highway 108. Four tows. Lodge, ski shop and lunch counter. Open Saturday and Sunday.

One inch of new snow and still snowing. Six inches of base snow. Ski school and slopes for beginners.

Valley City-Knob Hill area—One-half mile west of Valley City on Highway 10. One tow, 1,000 feet long. 300-yard run. Lighted slope. Meals served at the Chalet.

Base snow well packed but not icy. New storm falling. Skiing conditions fair to good.
