Skiing Brings New Thrills To County

By Dan Miles

Wind gently nips your cheeks. The sun brightly shines from the reflection off the snow. Majestic snow-covered hills, picture-book scenes punctuate a blue sky.
The stillness is broken momentarily by laughing voices gliding past.
A gloveful of glistening snow melts in your mouth to satisfy a thirst born of exercise and so much fresh air.
Joy and excitement in this case are the products of a mixture of daring and skill. Somewhere, sometime, someone found out what fun it is to fly silently down a steep hillside—and live to tell about it.

Then, as you descend the hill, you appreciate the view and excitement even more. That's one of the things most appreciative—you can participate at your speed, set your own pace, work at it as much or as little as you please.

The challenge is only as big as you make it.
Skiing, an irresistible charm, has found its way into Tuscarawas County.

This rapidly growing industry, the thrill of racing down a mountainside, the whole kaboodle, is now available at the Hidden Ridge Ski Slope, alias the Hidden Valley Golf course. Since opening last Friday, some 300 enthusiastic skiers have made the winter scene, whether it be down the gentle beginner's slope of 800 feet or the plummeting advanced trail of 1,500 feet.

The advanced slope has a 180-foot vertical path. Those desiring a leisurely pace can ski down the beginner's slope with a 100 vertical downgrade.

Operators of the county's new industry are Don Newland and his wife Marian of Dover, who together have been skiing for 14 years.

And, if the "ski bug" suddenly happens to bite you, there's no need to worry about proper equipment.

The lodge is completely furnished with the essentials which cost a nominal fee of $4 for boots, skis and poles for a day of fun.

Two ski tows to carry you up the hill offer the participant only half the excitement that awaits you on the descend. Both tows are equipped with 15-horsepower motors that move the skier along at 440 feet a minute.

The lodge offers all the comforts of home. There is a bar for refreshments and food.

The sport itself cannot be ignored because to mix the gaiety with the invitation of an untracked ski slope—beckoning in all its pure whiteness—is somehow to blend joy and excitement into an irresistible package.

Ready? See you at the bottom.

Celtics Lauded As Best Ever

BOSTON (AP) — The current Boston Celtics are being praised as the greatest ever — better than any of the Bob Cousy, Bill Sharman, Frank Ramsey clubs. Seeking a seventh straight National Basketball Association title, Red Auerbach's runaways made it a record-nearing 14 straight victories and 21 of 22 by beating Cincinnati 101-98 Sunday.

And Auerbach says, "We're concentrating more than ever on defense."

In other NBA action Sunday, St. Louis downed Los Angeles 111-105 and tied the Lakers for the Western Division lead.

Cincinnati, trailing Boston by eight games in the East despite a 30-14 record, just missed on a late rally before Bill Russell hugged his 30th rebound and killed the clock. Russ also had nine assists.

Afterwards Royals' Coach Jack McMahon said: "Those old Celtics with Cousy, Sharman, Ramsey and Russell were great but this team is the greatest."

"The old Celtics used to beat you with their scoring. This Celtics' team beats you with its defense."

Canadiens Regain Top Hockey Spot

The Montreal Canadiens are back in first place in the National Hockey League today and they owe it all to two players who weren't even with them three days ago.

Veteran goaltender Gump Worsley and right-winger Leon Rochefort, recalled from Quebec of the American League for the weekend after the Canadiens had lost three straight, sparked Montreal to its 4-2 victory over Chicago Sunday night lifting the Habs back into the NHL lead.

Worsley, who had snapped the losing string by whipping Boston 3-2 Saturday night, made 34 saves against the Hawks and Rochefort scored the tie-breaking goal midway through the final period.
