Holiday Inn Opens On 72 Wooded Acres At Lake Como Shore

The Anvan Companies announced today the opening of the 144 room resort Lake Geneva Holiday Inn in Lake Geneva, located on 72 wooded acres on the shores of Lake Como on Highway 50, between Lake Geneva and Williams Bay.

The facility features two restaurants, two cocktail lounges with live entertainment, meeting facilities for 600 people, an indoor swimming pool and therapeutic pool. There are two outdoor swimming pools, tennis courts, a ski slope, indoor recreation rooms, game rooms and gift and boutique shops. The basic commercial and recreation facilities were designed to anticipate expansion of the Hotel to 350 rooms.

Robert L. Flannery, Senior Vice President of Anvan, advised that over two hundred townhouses and apartments are also being developed on the rolling wooded site, which is enhanced by nearly a half mile of lake shore frontage. This Development will be known as Interlaken Village. Sixty-two resort apartments and townhouses are under construction and will be ready for occupancy during the latter part of the summer.

A Grand Opening Celebration is planned for June 2, with entertainment provided by comedian, Phil Foster.

The Anvan Companies operate four other Holiday Inns in the Chicago suburban area and recently undertook management operations at The Abbey Resort Hotel complex on Lake Geneva. Other hotel properties being developed by Anvan include a 19 story Holiday Inn at the University of Pennsylvania in Philadelphia and two additional Holiday Inns in the Chicago suburban area.
