Interlaken ---

And on Sundays they continue to offer their Sunday brunch which literally includes hundreds of items: fresh fruits, lox and bagels, smoked salmon, a full line of breakfast items (eggs Benedict, omelettes made to order), chef-carved beef, luncheon items, and an array of desserts to name a few.

Adjacent to the Lake Bluff Dining Room is the Woodshed Lounge where one can relax and enjoy a favorite beverage or cocktail. This is also the place to enjoy the entertaining wit of DJ Mo Billington.

Those who are planning a party, wedding reception, etc., should keep in mind that Billington might also be available to furnish the music to brighten your special occasion. For a private, unique setting for parties, Interlaken has recently remodeled the former ski lodge located on the shores of Lake Como into a private banquet facility. Now called the Chalet, it has been completely refurbished using rich greens in the plush carpeting and draperies. The new facilities include skylights and a DJ booth.

On Feb. 8, the Chalet will be the scene of Interlaken's first annual Bridal Fair '87. Actually it is being held through the combined efforts of Interlaken and a sister resort, the Abbey in Fontana. "We're anticipating 25 exhibitors displaying their services for brides-to-be," explained Knabel. Prizes will be offered by the Abbey and Interlaken including four honeymoon packages: one at the Abbey, one at Interlaken, one at the Knickerbocker in Chicago, and one at the Barclay Chicago. (All are members of the Abbey Group Hotels). Additional prizes will include Sunday brunches and gift certificates from the Abbey and Interlaken. Also each exhibitor will have his own drawing at each booth. Knabel advised that all attendees will have the opportunity to win.

Those looking for an outdoor activity this winter should keep in mind that during the winter, Interlaken's boat house (located on the shores of Lake Como near the Chalet) becomes the base for both snowmobile rentals and for cross-country ski rentals.

It is all part of the plan to have "something for everyone" whether one is part of a large corporate group, a family or a couple or individual want-
