Newspapers by ancestry
https://www.newspapers.com/image-view/611610331/

Downloaded on Nov 17, 2025

From the Weeklies

Lodi promotes ski lift

A drive is currently underway by the Optimist Club in Lodi to raise funds for a ski lift at the Lakeland Hills golf course for use this winter. Estimated cost of the portable equipment, which is not intended to mar the golf course beauty in summer is $6,500. This includes liability insurance. Members of the area Optimist Club intend to operate the lift. A one dollar charge per afternoon is planned, including use of the lift.

—Lodi Enterprise

NYC gets new labor department

Continental Manor of Randolph now has 20 residents. The nursing home opened in March, and the first resident to arrive — Mrs. Bertha Spain, Madison, — came in April.

—Randolph Advance

Sam's Barber Shop opened for business last week at the corner of Stark and North High Streets in Randolph. The two-chair shop was formerly a hardware building. A grand opening will be held Oct. 3-7, and Sam invites all to register for the drawings which will be held every day.

—Randolph Advance

Gymanfa Ganu will be held at Cambria's Presbyterian Church Oct. 8 at 2 p.m. and 6:30 p.m.

skilled suring home, which will be open to residents next month. A grand opening will be held Oct. 7-8.

—Wisconsin Dells Events

Bud Gussel, general chairman of the Wo-Zha-Wa days at Wisconsin Dells last week said 15,000 people were attracted to the festival, sponsored by the Wisconsin Dells City Promotional and Advertising Assn.

—Wisconsin Dells Events

Rio school authorities announce completition of a Citizen's Feasability Committee report on building a new school in Rio. Any interested resident may obtain a copy of the report at either school office.

Copyright © 2025 Newspapers.com. All Rights Reserved.