SILVER RIDGE SKI BLDG.

The city is paying for insurance of $6,000 for the building at the Silver Ridge Ski Club which no longer is in operation and which was a Recreation Department sponsored club, it was revealed during the meeting when Alderman Plante brought up the question. He raised the question of why the city should be continuing this insurance. The ski club is in the process of disbanding and selling its building, Recreation Director Robert Samuel said. The property is valued (including building) at only $800 by the Town of Summit, Samuel said. Some of the alderman and the mayor felt it was foolhardy to continue this insurance since the club is disbanding. The matter was referred to the insurance committee.
