Pancakes, Porkies To Help Kiwanis In Sports Projects

OCONTO FALLS (PG)—The annual pancake-porkie supper will be sponsored by the Oconto Falls Kiwanis Club Monday evening with Robert Wiese as chairman.

The club has been responsible for many of the local recreational improvements during the past quarter-century. The beach area and ski and toboggan facilities at the Flats are probably best known.

As it takes money to equip these sports areas, the club sponsors the annual pancake supper and uses the proceeds to help finance the projects.

Sam Moore was elected president of the club at the meeting this week. He will succeed Paul Marsden at the first meeting in the new year.

Other officers named at the meeting are Bob Wiese, vice president; Don Maheu, secretary, and Arnold Martin, treasurer, Maheu and Martin are holdover officers.
