Ski facilities numerous in Wisconsin

Every part of Wisconsin is within easy distance of a ski slope sufficiently challenging to test the most skilled skier, with the easy slopes available for beginners and the youngsters.

For a full-blown ski vacation, or a weekend of brisk runs, the facilities are numerous enough to give the enthusiast a choice of thrills and accommodations.

A telephone call or letter easily arranges reservations at any of the ski areas listed. Hotels, motels, resorts and lodges are only minutes from the slopes.

This is the guide to skiing in Wisconsin.

Trapp's contract extended

Two-time world snowmobile racing champion Mike Trapp, Woodruff, Wis., has signed a new contract to continue racing Ski-Doo snowmobiles beyond the 1973-74 season.

The 27-year-old Trapp won the world title in 1971 and 1972. He'll be teaming with Yvon Duhamel, "The Flying Frenchman" of snowmobile racing, during the SnoPro racing circuit which takes them to 12 races this winter.

Terms of the two-year contract extension were not disclosed.
