

THIS AND THAT

The only way to have a friend is to be one—A friend is one who knows all about you and loves you just the same!

A ski resort is planned near Savanna. A Chicago man has bought the Ira Bish farm north of Savanna, remodeled the house, and roughly cut out several ski runs and formulated plans for development of the area. The north facing slopes are said to make a natural and perfect layout. It will be called "Savanna Valley". Skiing is the fastest growing sport.
