

Marquette Man Named Chairman Of Ski Patrol

Howard C. Kitzman of Marquette, has been named regional chairman for the National Ski Patrol System.

Kitzman succeeds Geno Giuliani of Stambaugh, who resigned because of business reasons.

As regional chairman Kitzman has responsibility for supervision of all NSPS operations in the central and western counties of the Upper Peninsula and the northern tier of counties in Wisconsin.

The National Ski Patrol system, founded in 1938, is a non-profit volunteer organization aimed at promoting safety on the slopes, while at the same time making first aid services available to skiers.

Ski patrols based at Cliffs Ridge and Mt. Mesnard in Marquette, the K. I. Sawyer Air Force Base ski hill and all major U.P. ski areas are affiliated with the program.
