Rose City Area Ski Park Opens

Sage Lake Resort Manages Course

ROSE CITY—Lost Lake Ski park opened its trails to the winter sporting public for the first time this week. Free towing service to skiers featured the inaugural day's operation.

A Sage lake enterprise, Kenyon's Resort, is managing the new ski park, located eight miles east of M-33 on Sage Lake road.

Cross-country ski runs, open slope tobogganing, winter hunting, and ice skating and fishing are offered at the Lost Lake park. The ski course is equipped with one tow and a warming house.

Individuals and groups may obtain rooms and meals at Kenyon's Resort.
