HEARTENED BY CERTAIN snowy signs and portents, the Midwest Ski Areas association (area operators) has joined the Central United States Ski association (CUSSA), to better promote skiing and skiing safety.

Two new areas joined up at the season's opening meeting—Ski-Strom (formerly Barker's Alps, overlooking the state prison at Bayport, Minn.) and Indianhead, a new area boasting over 600-foot elevation near Bessemer and Wakefield, Mich. Ski Mac is painting its chalet.
