

Some Skiing Notes

By FAT GOULD

Lots of snow everywhere now, LaCROSSE every weekend. But ski conditions are perfect, so let's get out and ski this weekend. George Bergstrom, grand skier, says . . . And skiers are still talking about the ski show at the Moon Valley Inn.

Minnesota should immediately begin to improve some hills for skiing. Small projects are under way at Walker and Duluth, but Wisconsin is years ahead of us with its fine projects at LaCrosse, Waussau and Washburn.

Last fall we suggested a survey of possible ski hills in the state to Ed Shaw of the State Tourist Bureau. Ed took the idea to H. J. Miller, head of the state recreation board, who liked the idea. As yet, there has been no action, but let's keep the idea alive.

Telemark
If you have never been to a ski meet, we suggest you go over to Perch lake for the St. Croix Valley S. C.'s annual meet Sunday. You'll enjoy the races as well as taking on the surrounding hills, which are covered with 15 inches of snow. A plaque goes to the winning club team as well as medals for individual winners. To reach Perch lake, take highway 16 from Seven Corners in Minneapolis, cross the Stillwater bridge and follow the signs six miles east on County Road E.

Definition of a lively ski club: The Glenwood Athletes on a subzero night. After an hour lesson last Tuesday, Norman Oskovick and Myrtle Mattson won the Franklin Coop slalom and received their prizes in the Chabot, while other members thawed out their feet and raved about the wonderful skiing. Glenwood club championships will be held Sunday at 2 p.m. Linn Williams and Ken Beyerstedt are planning a club outing for Feb. 18 at the Frank Walker clubhouse on Bush lake.

The Davis Brothers tow (just off Highway 10 in Battle Creek Park, St. Paul) will start at 1 p.m. Saturday and Sunday. Their hill has 170-foot drop, is 800 feet long and is well protected for windy days. The North Star S. C. will hold its club novice meet here Saturday afternoon.

Sitmakers
You'll see Helen Skogerson or Carl Lindstrom at Moon Valley any time you go out there. . . . Another snowfall scheduled for St. Croix Falls this weekend. . . . Ask Harry Tyson about the hard skiing he did Tuesday night. . . . Congratulations to Bill Burmaster for the nice race he ran at LaCrosse. Bill deserves a trip to the Mount Hood tryouts at Berlin, N. H., next week. . . . Leaving things at LaCrosse is a hobby, Tom Wann wrote for his patrol. Ed Hartsenbergh, a pair of ski poles. But it wasn't any fun to leave.

WORLD ADVERTISE IN THE HOSPITAL down there. Also at LaCrosse were John Healy, Ben Van Sant, Bob Dullum, Wood Foster, Ned Davis, Bill Fry and others. The Twin Cities were well represented. Next Sunday brings the Central U. S. downhill and slalom championships at Waussau and the DOMINION FOLKMAN meet at Fort William, Ont. Both places offer competition and hills for any local skier.

If you are interested in a chartered bus ride to Waussau next weekend, drop a postal to Rev. Gable, 313 17th avenue S.E., with your name, phone, and when you can leave. The COLUMBIA ALBERG CLUB championships are set for 2 p.m. tomorrow, Glenwood, Minn., holds its sanctioned jumping meet on their two slides Sunday p.m. Jack Griffin and Charles Brucksteyer took the Senior and B' classes to help the Norwegian American A. C. win the team trophy in the TRICITY JUMPING meet at South St. Paul last Sunday. . . . Griffin, Brucksteyer and John Stolt will compete in the Washington birthday meet the following Mon., S. C. holds on SUICIDE HILL NEXT WEEK. . . . Dick Cochran, White Bear, carries the nicest wooden skiers you ever saw, but only when he can't get out to 80. . . . We can't forget that dead, LaCrosse hill, 300 feet drop in 550 feet. Now do we forget the hot club members who ran off the meet, Bill Maloney of Chicago WHO COMMUTES TO

Felstad--

Ardo--and he had reason to worry, it turned out. . . . However Tyson plainly had difficulty with Johnny Riley's south-paw style, especially in handling a defense for a left foot to the body. . . . Frankie Weismann still remained the most improved fighter in the field, especially after dropping tough Verne Knobe four times before a technical k.o. . . . Mike Anyotte was so busy protecting his midsection from Willie Oshberg's withering body attack he couldn't get set very often with his left jab hand. But when he did throw it, he really scored. . . .

Maybe Harry Lennon was credited when he pinned BOY, THIS SHOULD BE A FIGHT! The principals were John Fisherty and Jim O'Rourke, both Irish if you didn't guess it. . . . And it was. . . . Pat Breen, hailed for many as the top fighter in the field, was the biggest disappointment of the semifinals, mainly because he held back too long against a busy boy like Mickey Sorensen. . . . Breen didn't throw more than two good punches in all three rounds. . . . Breen must have been thinking of the next fight. Grover Coyne was another Tom Espenson last night, even in defeat.

Tony Hucker looked bad when, after slipping down Sid Fortin, he turned his back and refused to help his fallen foe in his corner. . . . Miles Lord made two perfect tackles on Harry
