

Southern Wisconsin Offers Many Spots for Those Who Like Winter Sports

MADISON—Wisconsin's winter-sports centers are looking forward to another busy season of catering to the thousands of Butchers and line, auto, Write: F. P. Kubisiak, Madison, Wis., Phone 237-1772.

ELPA LODGE SLOPES: 7 miles west of Delavan, Walworth county. Slopes: 200-foot hill; two rope runs; tobogganing; ice fishing, ice skating (lighted rink); sleighing; dancing; refreshments served at shelter. Fax: Harold Zillich, Lake Lawn Lodge, Delavan, Wis., Phone 344. — Chicago FR 5-682.

NEW MUNSTER SKI HILL: 20 miles west of Kenosha, Kenosha county. Sheltered bowl-like area, permitting skiing from any angle. Refreshments served at shelter. Facilities: 200-foot hill; 750-foot rope tow; two 500-foot rope tows; 50-cabin hotel, resorts and refreshments; accommodations in West Bend. Write: Chamber of Commerce, West Bend, Wis., Phone (Milwaukee) Jackson 14713.

GREENBUSH AREA: 6 miles west of Plymouth, Sheboygan county. Sheltered bowl-like area. Refreshments served at shelter. Facilities: 200-foot hill; 750-foot rope tow; two 500-foot rope tows; 50-cabin hotel, resorts and refreshments; accommodations in West Bend. Write: Chamber of Commerce, West Bend, Wis., Phone (Milwaukee) Jackson 14713.

FOX HILL: West Bend, Wash. County. On Cedar Lake; runs miles west of Kenosha, Kenosha county. Sheltered bowl-like area, permitting skiing from any angle. Refreshments served at shelter. Facilities: 200-foot hill; 750-foot rope tow; two 500-foot rope tows; 50-cabin hotel, resorts and refreshments; accommodations in West Bend. Write: Chamber of Commerce, West Bend, Wis., Phone (Milwaukee) Jackson 14713.

RAY VIEW SKI HILL: Williams Fork, Walworth County. Only two ski patrol; ski touring, trails 8-10 miles. Facilities: miles; snowshoeing; accommodations at Plymouth, Write: Clyde T. Smith, State Forest Supervisor, Wisconsin State Forest, Kettle Moraine State Forest—Shelton and Kenosha. Write: Chamber of Commerce, Kenosha, Wis., Phone 433-2121.

POTAWATOMI STATE PARK: 5 miles west of Sturgeon Bay, Door County. Shelter; hot and cold refreshments; beginners' slope; two hills, 120 and 30 feet high; two rope tows, 500 and 500 feet; operates weekends, other times by appointment; ski run, 800 feet; ski patrol; lighted slopes; ski touring; trails throughout entire park, 1,100 acres; ski jumping; ski and ski pole rental; class lessons, free Saturday mornings; ice skating; ice fishing; ice skating in Sturgeon Bay (lighted rink), tobogganing (chutes), total run 1,500 feet; toboggan rental $1 per hour; toboggan tow (lighted area); accommodations in Sturgeon Bay; reached by train, airline, bus, auto; weekly snow report sent free. Write: Door County Chamber of Commerce, Sturgeon Bay, Wis., Phone 704.

POWERS BLUFF: 17 miles north of Wisconsin Rapids and 14 miles southeast of Marshfield, Wood county. Shelter; hot refreshments; beginners' slope; 350-foot hill; 1,100-foot rope tow, weekends; ski run 1,200, 1,400 and 1,500 feet; reached by train or auto; weekly snow report sent free upon request. Write: Emil F. Mueller, Arpin, Wis., Phone Auburndale 5-712.

SLINGER'S LITTLE SWITZERLAND: 23 miles northwest of Milwaukee, Washington county. Sheltered bowl-like area. Refreshments; beginners' slope; 2 hills, 150 feet high; snow machine assures good skiing; two 800-foot rope tows; weekends only; ski runs, 900-1,500 feet; ski patrol; ski school, novice to expert; rentals: poles, boots, skis; repair services in Stevens Point; reached via bus, auto, train, airline; cost of transportation to area from railroad, bus or air terminals, 25-50 cents; weekly snow report sent free. Write: Curtis I. Taylor, Box 99P, Stevens Point, Wis., Phone 328-120.

LAKE LAWN: One-half mile west of Richfield, 25 miles northwest of Milwaukee, Walworth county. Sheltered bowl-like area. Refreshments; beginners' slope; 2 hills, 150 feet high; snow machine assures good skiing; two 800-foot rope tows; weekends only; ski runs, 900-1,500 feet; ski patrol; ski school, novice to expert; rentals: poles, boots, skis; repair services in Stevens Point; reached via bus, auto, train, airline; cost of transportation to area from railroad, bus or air terminals, 25-50 cents; weekly snow report sent free. Write: Curtis I. Taylor, Box 99P, Stevens Point, Wis., Phone 328-120.

HOLY HILL: Richfield, Wash. County. Located six miles west of Richfield, 25 miles northwest of Milwaukee, Walworth county. Sheltered bowl-like area. Refreshments; beginners' slope; 2 hills, 150 feet high; snow machine assures good skiing; two 800-foot rope tows; weekends only; ski runs, 900-1,500 feet; ski patrol; ski school, novice to expert; rentals: poles, boots, skis; repair services in Stevens Point; reached via bus, auto, train, airline; cost of transportation to area from railroad, bus or air terminals, 25-50 cents; weekly snow report sent free. Write: Curtis I. Taylor, Box 99P, Stevens Point, Wis., Phone 328-120.

DEVIL'S LAKE: Baraboo, Sauk County. Located in the rugged Baraboo range. Shelter; hot refreshments; 300-foot hill; 800-foot rope tow, 10 mph; ski runs to 1,200 feet; rentals: skis and poles; skating at Baraboo; accommodations at Baraboo. Write: Windy City Ski Club, 2569 Irving Park Blvd., Chicago, Phone KEystone 9-4684.

DYRACUSE MOUND: 13 miles south of Wisconsin Rapids, Adams County. New solar shelter; beginners' slope; 175-foot hill; 600-foot rope tow; 500-foot rope tow, 12 mph; tow operates holidays and weekends beginning Saturday noon; three open slopes 450-800 feet; unlimited trails, ski touring; ski jumping nearby; ice skating on

LAKE LAWN: One-half mile west of Richfield, 25 miles northwest of Milwaukee, Walworth county. Sheltered bowl-like area. Refreshments; beginners' slope; 2 hills, 150 feet high; snow machine assures good skiing; two 800-foot rope tows; weekends only; ski runs, 900-1,500 feet; ski patrol; ski school, novice to expert; rentals: poles, boots, skis; repair services in Stevens Point; reached via bus, auto, train, airline; cost of transportation to area from railroad, bus or air terminals, 25-50 cents; weekly snow report sent free. Write: Curtis I. Taylor, Box 99P, Stevens Point, Wis., Phone 328-120.

LAKE LAWN: One-half mile west of Richfield, 25 miles northwest of Milwaukee, Walworth county. Sheltered bowl-like area. Refreshments; beginners' slope; 2 hills, 150 feet high; snow machine assures good skiing; two 800-foot rope tows; weekends only; ski runs, 900-1,500 feet; ski patrol; ski school, novice to expert; rentals: poles, boots, skis; repair services in Stevens Point; reached via bus, auto, train, airline; cost of transportation to area from railroad, bus or air terminals, 25-50 cents; weekly snow report sent free. Write: Curtis I. Taylor, Box 99P, Stevens Point, Wis., Phone 328-120.

only; ski runs to 700 feet; lighted slopes; ski touring and trails, one mile; class lessons; tobogganing; snowshoeing; transportation to area from railroad $1; weekly snow reports sent free. Write: Association of Commerce, Fond du Lac, Wis., Phone 1611.

WILMOT SKI HILLS: 1 mile south of Wilmot, Kenosha county. One half mile runs; slopes 150 to 200 feet high. Open slopes, trails, 200 feet long. Five rope tows, two 1,000 feet long, and three 500 feet long. Ski runs 500 to 1,500 feet long. Tows operate weekends, Wednesdays afternoons and evenings, and holidays. Snow machine covers entire slope; ski school; 5 instructors for private and class lessons. Lighted slopes for night skiing, Wednesdays and Saturdays. Ski patrol. Large modern shelter with open fireplace, lunch counter, ski shop. Rentals: skis, boots, poles. Accommodations in Genoa City, Twin Lakes, Antioch

