

* * *

Excellent winter sports conditions despite the cold weather are in store for Waukesha sports fans this weekend. Temperatures are expected to rise tomorrow after sub-zero weather tonight. An abundance of snow and good skating conditions were predicted for ski, skate and ice-fishing enthusiasts.

Tower Hill, Lannon—Excellent skiing. Three to five inches packed snow. Ski tow operating today and Sunday. Night skiing each Wednesday.

Oconomowoc—Good skiing conditions reported at Devil's Hollow. Skating rink cleared and in excellent shape.

Waukesha — Excellent weather conditions predicted for second annual Speed Skating championships at the Buchner park rink here tomorrow afternoon.

Eagle and Delafield areas also reporting good skating and tobogganing.