

St., Superior, said the last place he skied before visiting White Cap was in Japan "where they are just as crazy as in the States about skiing."

Ski Tips: Charles Orville, owner and operator of the one-man Amnicon ski area a dozen miles east of Superior on Highway 13, says he's going to pass up operation this season so he can better prepare for next season. The reason: He's swamped with work Chalet skiers predominated at Tri-State resorts last weekend as the cold weather prevailed The horizontal marks on the main hill at Mont du Lac (as seen from a distance) are really movable snowfences.
