

• • • •

After the square dance at Lake Lawn on Delavan lake Thursday night J. R. Reader packed up the wherewith for a skiing vacation and took off for Colorado. On the holiday in the Rockies with Mr. Reader are his 13-year-old son, Phil, Russell Babcock Jr., son of one of Mr. Reader's partners at Lake Lawn, and Rudy Lange. Rudy's been the ski instructor at Lake Lawn for the past year. After a good season at Lake Lawn's new slide near the State School for the Deaf the boys want to see what Aspen has to offer. Aspen is the ghost town in the Rockies that was restored to the splendor of the gold rush days by a Chicago promoter who had the vision to make this quaint village a sports resort in the winter and a music festival center in the summer.

• • •